

General Statement of Council Makeup

The Coffee County Health Council is made up of several local residents, each of which represents a vested interest in the county. Currently the council has a membership of 29 individuals. There are representatives from several social service agencies, the County Health Department, local health care providers and administrators, media, school system, and businesses.

Appendix A: Membership List
