

FUTURE PLANNING

The Maury County Health Council has already begun working towards creating community awareness on tobacco-related issues by sponsoring a Smoke Free Campaign in five local middle schools. More than 1500 students participated in either an essay or poster contest describing the dangers of tobacco use.

The Health Council is currently seeking funding for programs that will target violence prevention and mental health issues in their community.